Since its launch in 2008, FUSION has become a leading innovator of wellness-inspired hotels and resorts, and is now the only fully vertically integrated hospitality company in Southeast Asia. Under one roof, Fusion conceptualizes, designs, builds, and manages beach-side resorts and city hotels through its uniquely branded hospitality concepts. Fusion has opened six resorts and hotels in Vietnam so far, with a team now boasting more than 1,500 employees, including 300 spa specialists.

In 2008, we started to imagine how hotels and resorts would look if they didn't follow everyday principles. Since then, Fusion has evolved into a collection of unique accommodation options, where each experience is anything but standard. We now proudly offer the only all-spa-inclusive resorts in Vietnam, and our "anywhere anytime" breakfast service makes lazy mornings in bed a hunger-free zone. Having shaken off the fuss and formalities of traditional hotels and resorts, our properties are also home to Fusionistas. More down-to-earth than butlers and concierges, these dedicated guys and gals will stop at nothing to make your vacation as memorable as possible. With everything we do at Fusion, we strive to do things differently, because, well... why not?

For more than a century, L'Oréal has been involved in the adventure of beauty. Since its creation by a researcher, Eugène Schueller, the Group has been pushing the boundaries of knowledge, based on a strong belief in innovation, to become the number one cosmetic group in the world. L'Oréal is present in 150 countries on every continent, through a portfolio of 36 brands: Maybelline New York, L'Oréal Paris, Lancôme, L'Oréal Professionnel, Vichy, etc., covering all distribution channels, all categories and all price levels. Every year, L'Oréal launch around 8,500 new products and sell over 7 billion of them in the hair colour, skin and hair care, perfume and make-up sectors.

The group's mission is to offer every woman and man on the planet the best innovation in terms of quality, effectiveness and safety, by responding to the infinite diversity of beauty needs and desires all over the world.

The decision to open ELCA Vietnam was groundbreaking for the group. In 1998 ELCA was one of the first 100% foreign-owned software companies to open an office in HoChi Minh City.

ELCA's outsourcing model is mature and we believe that our expertise is opening very interesting perspectives for us all.

ELCA Vietnam started with six people. Today we are a production facility with more than 250 employees.

During the same period ELCA Switzerland quadrupled its workforce to over 1000 engineers. We contributed fully to this success and the group has gained in flexibility and reduced its risks.

The ELCA Group recently crossed the line of 1000 employees. In a survey more than 11'000 Swiss students voted ELCA on rank 26 of the most attractive employers in Switzerland. This makes us the only Swiss IT company among the Top30 – together with companies like Google, Nestlé and Credit Suisse.
